	California	The State of California has passed legislation instituting a mandatory State Environmental Fee be collected for certain electronic products shipped directly from Dell to California, beginning January 1, 2005. This law, referred to as the Electronic Waste Recycling Act of 2003, requires manufacturers to collect a fee for these electronic devices sold into the State of California excluding sales to resellers. Under the current law and regulations, the following Dell branded & third party products will be subject to a State Environmental Fee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All laptop computers • All CRT monitors (excluding touch screen) • All LCD monitors (excluding touch screen) • TV's with a screen size greater than 4 inches that contain Cathode Ray Tubes • All CRT, LCD, and Plasma TVs with a screen size greater 	The State of California utilizes the advanced recovery fee that consumers pay at point of purchase to reimburse registered recyclers for the covered electronic devices that they recycle in the State. A list of registered recyclers is available at: http://www.ciwmb.ca.gov/Electronics/Collection/RecyclerSearch.aspx Additionally, Dell offers the following recycling opportunities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
