If these remedies are not reasonably available to us, we may, at our option, terminate this Agreement or any relevant order without any additional liability hereunder.
- 5.5 If you have the right to use and deal with any third party intellectual property then your use of that intellectual property is based solely on any permissions granted by the third party and it is your sole responsibility to obtain such permission from the owners of those rights. Use of our CFI services, for adaptation of Products in accordance with customer requirements, are subject to you agreeing to our terms and conditions for that service which are available on request.

You are responsible for keeping the Purchase Codes confidential and controlling their use. If you believe that an unauthorised transaction has occurred on your account, please notify your Dell sales representative.
- 6.2 All orders shall be regarded as requests for relevant Dell Offerings will not be binding upon us unless and until we have issued a formal order confirmation to you. Our Dell Offerings are subject to availability and we reserve the right to make detailed changes to Dell Offering specifications on an ongoing basis. Once an order confirmation has been issued by Dell, you are not entitled to cancel an order or part of it without our prior written consent, save where section 15.3 applies. Any variation in an order must be agreed in writing by the Parties. In relation to any orders for Stand Alone Services, you shall provide to us a service order signed by you, detailing the name of each end-customer, end-customer address and the applicable Stand Alone Service ordered. You shall submit such information on the designated Dell service order form if requested. Stand Alone Services that have service term duration periods and renewals may be invoiced to you monthly (renewals are new orders subject to the then current prices for such renewals).
- 6.3 We cannot warrant fitness for any particular purpose. In particular our Dell Offerings are not designed to be used in any application or environment where absolute reliability is critical to performance of a process or to the safety of humans, animals, intellectual property or real property. You understand and agree that Dell makes no assurances or warranties that the Dell Offerings are suitable for any high-risk uses. Any intended application of this kind must be agreed to expressly in writing by us prior to the confirmation of the order for those Dell Offerings.
- 6.4 If we help you to configure and to provision your order then this guidance will be provided as non-binding suggestions only for which we will not accept liability unless agreed within specific parameters and in writing for individual orders with one of our Directors on a case by case basis. Consequently you must check and validate the suitability of all such suggestions and guidance yourself before placing the order.
- 6.5 When fulfilling an order for Dell Offerings we reserve the right to substitute with Dell Offerings that are equivalent in all respects to or enhanced from the Dell Offering that you have ordered, however we will not make any significant variations to the Dell Offering ordered without your agreement. 7. Delivery and Returns in relation to Products

- 7.1 We will build, supply, and deliver the Products to you as set out in the order confirmation, using Dell’s standard build and delivery processes or otherwise as may be agreed in writing between the Parties. Dell retains title to the Products until full payment for such Products is received. Until full payment is received, you will hold the Products on a fiduciary basis as Dell’s bailee but may resell the Products in the ordinary course of your business. If, before title to the Products passes to you, you become subject to any of the events detailed in section 15.2, or Dell reasonably believes that such event is about to happen and notifies you accordingly, then, provided that the Products have not yet been resold or irrevocably incorporated into another Product, and without limiting any other right or remedy that Dell may have, Dell may at any time require you to deliver up the Products and, if you fail to do so promptly, enter any or your premises or those of any third party where the Products are stored, in order to inspect and/or recover them. Accordingly you grant Dell, its agents and employees an irrevocable licence at any time to enter without restriction any premises where the Products are or may be stored without prior notice in order to inspect them, or, where your right to possession has terminated, to recover them. Dell shall be entitled to maintain an action against you for the price of Products notwithstanding that title to and property in the Products has not passed to you.

You will notify us within 7 (seven) days if the any Product(s) or Product cartons comprising a Delivery is/are otherwise not in conformity with the relevant order, specifying the non-conformity details. Any repeat deliveries arising due to no fault of Dell will incur additional delivery charges. If you do not accept Delivery of the Products despite such Products conforming with the order confirmation, we shall charge (at cost) to you the cost of Delivery, handling and storage of the such Products. Products returned to Dell for exchange under this section shall be shipped from your facility with title and risk of loss or damage passing to Dell (or the Dell designated carrier) upon physical delivery and Dell shall pay all freight charges. Any defect issues arising after this initial period shall be dealt with by Dell direct with the end user under the Product Warranty (as defined in section 9 below and meaning that Dell shall repair, in the first instance, or, if repair is not reasonably practicable, replace such Product direct for your customer, within a reasonable period and within the parameters of the Warranty). You shall not be entitled to return Product for exchange or credit other than in accordance with this section 7.6 and section 7.3. Freight damage claims for damage occurring between you and your customer or end user are your sole responsibility and any requirement for exchange of Products damaged due to your freight issues will be dealt with as above but with you being responsible for all Product replacement costs and freight charges.

- 11.1 You will indemnify us from and against all claims, demands, losses, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including legal and other professional costs and expenses), provided such costs and expenses are reasonably and demonstrably incurred, which we suffer as a result of: (i) you not complying with your data protection obligations in accordance with Appendix 1, (ii) intellectual property obligations, (iii) confidentiality obligations, (iv) making unauthorized alterations to our Products, supplied software or Services, (v) supplying us with infringing intellectual property rights for a pre-packaged value Custom Factory Image; (vi) not complying with your waste disposal obligations (including, but not limited to, your obligations under the relevant national application of the WEEE Directive and any updates of these regulations that may be current from time to time) or (vii) you failing to duly and correctly inform your customers and end-users about the specifications of any Products, Services, or Insurance Products or other Dell Offerings, including but not limited to the limitations to such Dell Offerings and end-customer’s obligations in relation to obtaining such Dell Offerings, by supplying your customers with (information equivalent to) any relevant Dell Offering Specifications including relevant Service Descriptions available from www.dell.com/servicecontracts making clear to your customers and end-users that you and not Dell is the contractual party to any agreement regarding resale and delivery of the Dell Offering to your customers; (viii) you failing to include any minimum terms required in your End-customer Agreements and/or (ix) you providing incorrect or misleading information to end users.
- 11.2 You will also be liable to us if your acts or omissions cause the Program or Dell more generally to be damaged, commercially disadvantaged or brought into commercial disrepute – including, in particular, but not limited to, through the release of pricing, specification data, technical support and other information made available to you through the Portal, the Premier Pages or otherwise to third parties.

- 11.3 If and where the Parties have agreed that Dell will provide you with marketing development funding (either in accordance with a standard scheme through the Program or otherwise), such funding will be offered only on the basis of a marketing services Addendum to this Agreement or a separate marketing services agreement or commitment letter and you agree to provide Dell with all applicable proof of marketing execution documentation, as reasonably requested by Dell, and you will issue to Dell a valid invoice for the relevant marketing funds payable, in each case as set out in the relevant Addendum /agreement / commitment letter.

12. Process for fulfilling these Obligations

The indemnities given in sections 10 and 11 above shall not be limited by section 13 of this document below. Each indemnity above is given by you to us or us to you as the “Indemnifying Party” to the other Party out of you or us -the “Indemnified Party” subject to:

- a) the Indemnified Party giving written notice to the Indemnifying Party of any claims or legal or similar proceedings as soon as reasonably practicable following written receipt of them;
- b) the Indemnified Party making no admission of liability;
- c) the Indemnified Party taking the Indemnifying Party’s reasonable instructions in relation to the defence or settlement of the claims or proceedings at the Indemnifying Party’s cost and expense, provided however that the Indemnified Party shall not be required to defend or settle the claim in a way that is prejudicial to the Indemnified Party; and
- d) where the Indemnified Party is you, you complying with, and procuring that its employees and contractors comply with, all of Dell’s reasonable instructions.

13. Limits On Obligations

- 13.1 The Parties’ total liability to each other under, or in relation to, the Agreement, or in relation to the subject matter of the Agreement (whether such liability arises due to negligence, breach of contract, misrepresentation or for any other reason) is set out in this Section 13.
- 13.2
- a) Neither Party excludes or limits liability to the other party for (1) death or personal injury resulting from negligence, (2) fraud or (3) fraudulent misrepresentation or (4) any other liability that cannot be excluded by law.
 - b) Subject to section 13.2(a), each Party’s liability to the other, howsoever arising out of or in connection with the Agreement, whether for negligence or breach of contract or otherwise, shall be the lesser of 125% of the price payable by you for the individual Dell Offering order which is affected or €500,000 (five hundred thousand Euro).
- 13.3 Notwithstanding the responsibilities and limitations detailed in section 13.2 and subject to section 13.2(a) and unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, neither Party is responsible for:
- a) indirect or consequential loss;
 - b) loss of business profits, salary, revenue, savings, customers or contracts;
 - c) loss avoidable by a Party through reasonable conduct and /or in accordance with Dell’s advice or instructions;
 - d) any loss arising out of failure by the suffering Party to keep full and up-to-date security copies of computer programs and data;
 - e) all items excluded from the warranty;
 - f) loss of or damage to reputation; or
 - g) damage caused by a Force Majeure event.

These limitations are reasonable in the context of the Dell –Partner relationship on the basis of clear communication of terms and reasonable expectations of the Parties in each of the above circumstances.

- 13.4 In addition to the limitations in 13.3 above, Dell is not responsible for:
- a) damage remedied or repaired by Dell within a reasonable time; or
 - b) loss which arises as a consequence of Dell using Customer provided or specified materials or instructions (e.g. CFI services).
- 13.5 In addition to the responsibilities detailed in 13.2, Dell is liable to you for (and such liability shall not be limited by section 13.2(b)):
- a) direct claims from end users relating to statutory Product liability issues (provided that they are handled in accordance with the Regulatory appendix – Appendix 1 below); and
 - b) any direct costs and expenses of administering a Product recall (handled in accordance with Appendix 1)
- except, in both cases, to the extent that the claim, cost or expense has arisen from your contributory negligence and subject to your compliance with the processes documented in the last paragraph of this section 13 or Dell’s reasonable instructions.
- 13.6 Subject to any limitations imposed by law as detailed in the first paragraph of this section 13, any liability of you to us or of us to you (whether such liability arises due to negligence, breach of contract, misrepresentation or for any other reason) will be reduced to the extent that the other Party (i.e. you or us) that is harmed has failed to take all reasonable steps to mitigate its losses. Where we or you being the “Claiming Party” want to make a claim against the other you or us being the “Defending Party” for any liability arising out of, or in connection with, an order (including any issue arising under the Agreement in relation to that order), the Claiming Party shall notify the Defending Party in writing of the claim as soon as reasonably practicable and for it to be a “Valid Claim” include: full details of the Claiming Party’s claim against the Defending Party including all causes of action; full details of the losses being claimed for by the Claiming Party; and all supporting documentation required by the Defending Party to substantiate the Claiming Party’s claim(s). A Party shall not be entitled to bring a claim for any liability arising out of this Agreement as detailed in this section 13, unless that Party makes a Valid Claim before the date falling on 6 (six) months from the date on which the incident or event giving rise to the claim in question, occurred or on which the notifying Party first became aware if later.

13.7 You shall maintain adequate insurance cover to meet its liabilities under this Agreement and shall produce proof of the level of such insurance within ten (10) working days of a request by Dell for such proof. The maintenance of adequate insurance cover as aforesaid is a condition of this Agreement.

14 Prices and Payments

14.1 The order confirmation specifies the price to be paid by you for building, supplying, and delivering the relevant Dell Offering, and any charges for additional services. The price and any charges exclude VAT, any applicable levies and other taxes, which shall be paid by you.

14.2 Where agreed between the parties, either in writing signed on behalf of both Parties or by means of standard schemes available to all Partners through the Program, you may be entitled to rebates or discounts on Dell Offering purchases. Discounts will be applied at the point of order but rebates will generally be applied by means of credit note issued to you, for adjustment against future orders. Any marketing development funding agreed between the Parties to be payable by Dell in respect of Dell Offering marketing initiatives, will be payable by Dell only on the basis of a valid invoice issued to Dell in accordance with Section 11.3.

14.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Dell and subject to allocated credit based upon our assessment of your corporate strength, payment terms will be 30 days from date of invoice. Late payment interest charges at 4% above the EURIBOR 3 month rate quoted on the date of invoice will apply to overdue sums. Dell reserves the right to pass your debts to third parties for collection. Dell reserves the right to withhold delivery of future orders in case of late or non-payment of an invoice.

14.4 You have 14 (fourteen) days from date of invoice to raise any queries or disputes, otherwise the invoice will be deemed accurate and due for payment on the 30th day after the date of invoice. Disputed parts of invoices or entirely disputed invoices will not be due for payment until 14 (fourteen) days after the date when the dispute is resolved. Undisputed parts of invoices must be paid as indicated above.

14.5 You shall not be entitled to make any set-offs, deductions, or deferments to the sums due under an invoice, whether or not in respect of any disputes or claims whatsoever (in respect of which section 14.4 will apply).

14.6 We provide you with specific pricing and other assistance and support and this pricing and assistance and support is conditional (unless expressly otherwise agreed in writing) on the relevant Dell Offering being onward sold directly to a business for their own use rather than being resold again, used by you, being supplied to a private individual for personal use or being supplied to a different end user from the one that you informed us about. Where you seek to avail of Dell's deal registration process for particular end user deals, you will ensure that, in each case, the end user is a business customer and has provided you with consent to pass their full company details to Dell for the purposes of the deal registration application evaluation and in accordance with Appendix 1. Company data collected by these means will not be used by Dell for any other purposes.

14.7 Deliberately, repeatedly or negligently misrepresenting information in order to gain benefits or access to deal registration, assistance and or support may be treated as a material breach of this Agreement. If you mislead us in order to get a lower price than the price to which you are entitled or to get support or assistance to which you are either not entitled or at a price which you are not entitled to obtain that support or assistance, then Dell reserves the right to invoice you for the price discrepancy or the normal cost or price of the provision as Dell reasonably regards as appropriate. Any such invoice will be payable on receipt and, as a valid debt between the partner and Dell, may be subject to late payment interest charges or court collection action.

14.8 You are responsible for all applicable taxes, duties, fees or other charges, including sales or use and/or similar taxes, imposed by any federal, state or local governmental entity on Dell Offerings under this Agreement, except for taxes based on Dell's net income, gross revenue, property or employment obligations. You acknowledge that you are responsible for the payment of all taxes and fees assessed or imposed on Dell Services Offerings in any geography in which you or an end user receive the benefit of the Services. You will indemnify Dell on demand from and against any claims, demands, actions, losses, expenses, liabilities, judgments, settlements, damages and costs incurred by Dell or its affiliates arising out of or in connection with any charges, tax liabilities and/or fees under this section 14 which are not paid by you. If Dell is obligated by applicable law or regulation to collect and remit any taxes or fees relating to the Dell Offerings, then Dell will add the appropriate amount to your invoices as a separate line item.

14.9 Dell will provide you with a valid invoice if VAT is chargeable in respect of any amount payable under this Agreement and meets all statutory requirements and conditions necessary to allow you to obtain relief from VAT if a relief procedure is available ("Tax Invoice"). You will, upon receipt of the Tax Invoice, pay to Dell the VAT properly chargeable, in respect of that payment.

14.10 If Dell has incorrectly determined the amount of VAT chargeable to you, then the invoice will be corrected promptly upon notification to Dell. In case of overpayment by you, Dell will repay this amount to you via the issue of a credit note. In case of underpayment, you will pay the outstanding amount to Dell within 15 days upon receipt of a valid Tax Invoice.

14.11 In the event that you are required by law to make a withholding or deduction in respect of the price payable to Dell, You will make relevant payments to Dell net of the required withholding or deduction. You will supply to Dell evidence, to the reasonable satisfaction of Dell that you have accounted to the relevant authority for the sum withheld or deducted and will provide all such assistance, as may be requested by Dell, in recovering the amount of the withholding. In the event that a double taxation treaty applies, which provides for a reduced withholding tax rate, you will only withhold and pay the reduced tax amount. Dell will not be responsible to you for any penalties, interest or other charges arising from any act or omission by you in respect of tax compliance.

15 Ending the Agreement

- 15.1 Either Party may end this Agreement, and you may therefore withdraw from the Program, at any time on one month's notice in writing. Except where the provisions of the next paragraph of this Agreement apply, termination will not relieve either Party of its obligations to complete commitments entered into between the Parties on or prior to the termination date including in particular, but not limited to, commitments relating to fulfilling orders placed, making payments due, complying with data protection, intellectual property, confidentiality and liability obligations.
- 15.2 Dell may refuse to accept new orders at any time (including without limitation to impose minimum order requirements as part of any Dell program, policy or practise) and an order will not be binding upon us unless and until confirmed in accordance with section 6. Further, Dell may refuse to fulfil remaining obligations under existing orders placed under this Agreement if you:
- commit a material and irremediable breach of this Agreement (including but not limited to, deliberately, repeatedly or negligently misleading us in order to gain pricing, support or assistance to which you are not entitled);
 - commit a material and remediable breach of this Agreement and fail to remedy it following the provision of a reasonable period of written notice within which to remedy the breach;
 - fail to make payments when they fall due – unless otherwise pre agreed in writing;
 - become insolvent or seek protection under any bankruptcy, receivership, trust deed, creditors arrangement, composition or comparable proceeding, or if any proceeding is instituted against you;
 - act in a way which in Dell's reasonable discretion is damaging to Dell or to the Program including, in particular, but not limited to, through the release of pricing, specification data, technical support and other information made available to you through the Portal, the Standard PP or the Partner PP or otherwise to third parties – including on an aggregate basis to data collection and analysis agencies.
- 15.3 Dell may end this Agreement with immediate effect upon notice in writing to you, if you breach the export compliance or anti-corruption provisions set out section 8 and in Appendix 1.
- 15.4 You may cancel orders in the event that Dell:
- commits a material and remediable breach of this Agreement and fails to remedy it following the provision of a reasonable period of written notice within which to remedy the breach; or
 - other than as part of a bona fide corporate restructure or reorganisation, becomes insolvent or seek protections under any bankruptcy, receivership, trust deed, creditors arrangement, composition or comparable proceeding.

16 Force Majeure

Neither Party shall be obliged to seek to perform their obligations under this Agreement or liable for their failure to do so to the extent that they are precluded from doing so by either events beyond their own reasonable control such as fire, flood, war, embargo, strike, unforecast shortage of materials, transport delay or interruption or act of government or by the act or omission of the other Party ("Force Majeure Events") provided that the affected Party notifies the other Party promptly in writing and takes all reasonable steps to resolve the Force Majeure Event promptly. Should performance (other than in respect of payment of sums due) be impossible for a period in excess of 30 days then either Party may write to the other Party to terminate the Agreement in respect of the affected order(s) without incurring liability to the other Party for this action.

17 Some general provisions

- 17.1 No variation to this Agreement shall be effective unless it is either (i) communicated by Dell to you via the Premier Pages or the Portal and you do not withdraw from the Program within the reasonable time period provided by Dell in the relevant communication of the Agreement variation; or (ii) in writing and signed by or on behalf of an authorised representative of each of the Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Dell may, in its sole discretion, vary any other aspects of the Program, including but not limited to the Product and Services specifications available to you, the pricing and pricing mechanisms applicable to you, any rebate or other incentive schemes offered by Dell to Partners from time to time, the Program Guide, the contents and method of operation of the Premier Pages and/ or the Portal and any conditions or requirements applying to registration or certification as a Partner. The Parties are independent contractors dealing independently of each other and no partnership, agency, representative or other function is intended or implied between the Parties under this Agreement.
- 17.2 Notices under this may be sent by email or registered post to the legal departments of the respective Parties and shall be deemed effective when a non automated response or a delivery signature is obtained respectively.
- 17.3 The failure of either Party to enforce or exercise, at any time or for any period of time, any term of or any right arising under this Agreement does not give rise to a waiver of that term or right and shall in no way affect that Party's right later to enforce or to exercise it.

- 17.4 If either Party fails to enforce at any time any of the applicable legal provisions, this will not be taken as a waiver of any of their respective rights.
- 17.5 We may assign or transfer our obligations or rights to a competent third party or our associated companies in whole or in part. Our agreement to work with you is based on certain selection criteria used by us such as (but not limited to) those which relate to credit limits or export compliance. Therefore, you may not assign your obligations or rights, in whole or in part, without our written consent. Further, we have obligations to you under the terms of this Agreement and we will have obligations to Product end users by means of Warranties. However, our obligations to you are not assignable or transferable without our written consent and therefore any third parties to whom you may resell Products and who are not end users of the Products will not be entitled to enforce these obligations against Dell. Warranties are transferable only in accordance with Dell's standard asset tag registration and transfer processes.
- 17.6 Our and your rights and obligations will be governed by Finnish law and, in the unlikely event of a dispute (contractual or non-contractual), we and you agree the exclusive jurisdiction of the Finnish courts shall apply to the resolution of the dispute. The Vienna Convention on Contracts for the International Sales of Goods is excluded.
- 17.7 If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated or rewritten to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement can otherwise remain in full force and effect.
- 17.8 This Agreement is not intended to be for the benefit of or to be enforceable by, any person other than a Party.

 - MSR End-User breaches the terms of the Modular Reseller License Agreement and Acceptable Use Policy

If Dell cancels a Modular Service, Dell will send Customer and MSR End-User written notice of cancellation at the address indicated on Customer’s invoice. The notice will include the reason for cancellation and the effective date of cancellation, which will be not less than ten (10) days from the date Dell sends notice of cancellation to Customer and MSR End-User, unless applicable law requires other cancellation provisions that may not be varied by agreement. IF DELL CANCELS THIS MODULAR SERVICE PURSUANT TO THIS PARAGRAPH 5, CUSTOMER OR MSR END-USER SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO ANY REFUND OF FEES PAID OR DUE TO DELL.

6. Transfer of Service. Customer may resell the Modular Service(s) to a MSR End-User but otherwise not transfer this Modular Service(s) or any rights conferred to MSR by this Schedule to a third party. Self-service transfers of an MSR provided Modular Service among MSR End-Users (within the same country) and systems within an MSR End-User’s IT infrastructure that do not require additional support from Dell are permitted. However, any transfers, imports or migrations of the Modular Service that require additional support by Dell beyond the standard scope of an initial deployment are only available upon a separate purchase (defined in a separate statement of work or other signed agreement between the parties).
7. Dell Partners. Dell may utilise affiliates and subcontractors to perform the Modular Services. From time to time, Dell may change the party performing the Modular Services; provided however, Dell shall remain responsible to Customer for the delivery of the Modular Services.
8. Supported Products. Supported devices and operating systems are identified at www.Dell.com/ModularServices. Notwithstanding inclusion on the published supported devices and operating systems list, products or versions of products that are no longer supported by the device manufacturer or software publisher are not supported.

Dell shall have the right to use such data solely to provide services to Customer, to inform Customer about our products and services and fulfil Customer’s orders and service requests. At any point, Customer or its MSR End-Users may uninstall the Service-Enabling Software in order to disable the collection of system configuration data by Dell. However, uninstalling the Service-Enabling Software from a System during the Term of Subscription Service will result in a disruption of Modular Service until the Service-Enabling Software is restored. Upon expiration and/or termination of the Term of Subscription Service, any Service-Enabling Software which Customer or MSR End-Users do not uninstall will continue to collect, compile and transmit system configuration data to Dell.

10. Device Count Billing. The number of systems, units (e.g., mailboxes, recipients, minutes, etc.) and end users for which Customer has purchased Modular Services in respect of each MSR End-User and the applicable Term of Subscription Service for each Modular Service is indicated on Customer's invoice, order acknowledgment or purchase order. Usage in excess of this number or for a period of time longer than the applicable Term of Subscription Service will result in additional fees to Customer. The additional fees per billing period will be determined by multiplying the excess usage by the contracted fee per System, unit, or the end user fee in the original Customer invoice, if applicable.
11. LIABILITY TO MSR END-USERS. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT, NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT AND WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, MSR END-USER'S ACCEPTANCE OF THE DELL MODULAR SERVICES RESELLER LICENCE AGREEMENT & ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY AS PROVIDED FOR IN THIS AGREEMENT, DELL PROVIDES THE MODULAR SERVICES TO CUSTOMER FOR CUSTOMER'S SOLE BENEFIT AND FOR RESALE BY CUSTOMER AND THAT TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW AND SAVE AS EXPRESSLY SET OUT IN THE DELL MODULAR SERVICES RESELLER LICENCE AGREEMENT & ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY, DELL SHALL NOT INCUR ANY LIABILITY TO ANY THIRD PARTY, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION TO ANY MSR END-USER.

- Ensure that MSR End-User has active subscriptions or licenses for any third-party software used or managed by the Modular Service.

Schedule B to Appendix B(1) – Modular Services

Modular Reseller License Agreement and Acceptable Use Policy

LICENSE AND ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

This License Agreement & Acceptable Use Policy ("Agreement ") sets forth the terms and conditions upon which you may use Software in connection with Dell Services and is intended to be read in conjunction with the terms and conditions of sale for the products, Services or Software purchased from Dell and any applicable service contract(s), available online at www.Dell.com/ServiceContracts. Software may be provided to or otherwise made available to you in order to facilitate Dell's performance of Services, as a feature of a Service, to enable you to access hosted, online or remote software-enabled Services (e.g. "software-as-a-service" and "cloud-based" offerings), or to enhance your experience with Dell's products (capitalized terms defined below).

1. Your Relationship with Dell.

- a. Introduction. This is a legal agreement between you, the user of the Software (as defined herein), a corporation, partnership, sole proprietor, or other business entity ("you(r)" or "Customer ") and Dell Products L.P. or Dell Global B.V. or, if applicable, the Dell entity identified on Customer's invoice ("Dell ") with whom an order for Software or Services is placed. By placing an order for Software or Service or downloading, installing, activating or otherwise using the Software you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If you are entering this Agreement on behalf of a company or other legal entity, you represent that you have the authority to bind such entity to these terms and conditions, in which case the terms "you", "your" or "Customer" shall refer to such entity. If you do not have such authority, or if you do not agree with these terms and conditions, do not accept this Agreement or use the Software. In instances where Customer purchases through a reseller or distributor, final prices and terms and conditions of sale will be as agreed between Customer and the third party from which Customer makes such purchases; however, the terms set forth herein are applicable to your use of Software and the performance of Services by Dell.
- b. Definitions. "Services" means any and all services provided by Dell as described in one or more Service Agreements. "Software" means any software, library, utility, tool, or other computer or program code, in object (binary) or source-code form, as well as the related documentation, provided by Dell to you. Software includes software locally installed on your systems and software accessed by you through the Internet or other remote means (such as websites and "cloud-based" applications). "Deliverables" means the tangible and intangible materials, including reports, studies, base cases, drawings, findings, manuals, procedures, and recommendations prepared by Dell or its suppliers, licensors, or subcontractors in the course of performing the Services. "Materials" means all content and other items included with or as part of the Products, Services, Software, or Deliverables, such as text, graphics, logos, button icons, images, audio clips, information, data, photographs, graphs, videos, typefaces, music, sounds, and software. "Third-Party Products" means any non-Dell-branded products, software, or services.
- c. Additional Agreements. This Agreement, together with the Service Agreements (as defined below), form a legally binding contract between you and Dell in relation to your purchase and use of Software, and Dell's performance of Services. In the event of a conflict between these agreements, the terms of these documents will be interpreted in the following order of precedence: (1) Service Agreement; and (2) this Agreement.

2. Service Agreements.

Dell may provide Services, Software, or Deliverables to you in accordance with one or more "Service Agreements". "Service Agreements" are service contracts, including "Service Descriptions" available at www.Dell.com/ServiceContracts, "Statements of Work," and any other such mutually agreed upon documents. Each Service Agreement will be interpreted as a single agreement, independent of any other Service Agreement, so that all of the provisions are given as full effect as possible.

3. Term; Auto-Renewal; Termination.

- a. Term; Auto-Renewal. This Agreement commences on the date you place your order and continues until all Services and Software licenses have expired or been terminated. Each Service and license to Software will continue for the term stated in the Service Agreement, unless otherwise terminated.
- b. Termination of Services and Software License. Unless renewed in accordance with this Agreement, this Agreement will terminate automatically upon the expiration of the agreed term of Services and Software license. Dell may terminate this Agreement immediately, including prior to the expiration of the term of Services or Software license, if (1) you fail to make any payment when due; (2) you declare bankruptcy or are adjudicated bankrupt; or (3) a receiver or trustee is appointed for you or substantially all of your assets. Upon termination of this Agreement, all rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement will automatically terminate except for rights of action accruing prior to termination, payment obligations, and any obligations that expressly or by implication are intended to survive termination.

4. Proprietary Rights.

All right, title, and interest in the intellectual property (including all copyrights, patents, trademarks, trade secrets, and trade dress) embodied in the Materials, including the methods by which the Services are performed and the processes that make up the Services, shall belong solely and exclusively to Dell or its licensors, and you shall have no rights whatsoever in any of the above, except as expressly granted in this Agreement. The Materials are protected by copyright laws and international copyright treaties, as well as other intellectual property laws and treaties. You may not modify, remove, delete, augment, add to, publish, transmit, adapt, translate, participate in the transfer or sale of, create derivative works from, or in any way exploit any of the Materials, in whole or in part.

5. Deliverables.

Dell and its applicable suppliers or licensors will retain exclusive ownership of all Deliverables, and will own all intellectual property rights, title, and interest in any ideas, concepts, know-how, documentation, and techniques associated with such Deliverables. Subject to payment in full for the applicable Services, Dell grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free right to use the Deliverables solely in the country or countries in which you do business, solely for your internal use, and solely as necessary for you to enjoy the benefit of the Services as stated in the applicable Service Documents.

6. Suspension or Modification of Software or Services.

Dell may suspend, terminate, withdraw, or discontinue all or part of the Services or your access or one or more users' access to the Software upon receipt of a subpoena or law-enforcement request, or when Dell believes, in its sole discretion, that you (or your users) have breached any term of this Agreement or an applicable Service Agreement, or are involved in any fraudulent, misleading, or illegal activities.

Dell may modify the Software or Services, at any time, with or without prior notice to you. You agree that Dell shall not be liable to you or any third party for any modification of the Software or Services.

It may be necessary for Dell to perform scheduled or unscheduled repairs or maintenance, or remotely patch or upgrade the software installed on its and your computer system(s), which may temporarily degrade the quality of the Services or result in a partial or complete outage of the Software. Dell provides no assurance that you will receive advance notification of such activities or that the Software or Services will be uninterrupted or error-free. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing between you and Dell, any degradation or interruption in the Software or Services shall not give rise to a refund or credit of any fees paid by you.

YOU AGREE THAT THE OPERATION AND AVAILABILITY OF THE SYSTEMS USED FOR ACCESSING AND INTERACTING WITH THE SOFTWARE, INCLUDING COMMUNICATION BY PUBLIC ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORKS, PRIVATE COMPUTER NETWORKS, AND BY OTHER PUBLIC ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE PROVIDERS' NETWORKS, OR TO TRANSMIT INFORMATION, WHETHER OR NOT SUPPLIED BY YOU OR DELL, CAN BE UNPREDICTABLE AND MAY, FROM TIME TO TIME, INTERFERE WITH OR PREVENT ACCESS TO OR USE OR OPERATION OF THE SOFTWARE. DELL SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY SUCH INTERFERENCE WITH OR PREVENTION OF YOUR ACCESS TO OR USE OF THE SOFTWARE.

7. Software License from Dell.

a. License. Software is subject to the separate software license agreement(s) accompanying the software media, along with any product guides, operating manuals, or other documentation presented to Customer during the installation or use of the Software. In the absence of such terms, Dell hereby grants Customer a personal, non-exclusive license to access and use the Software provided by Dell. Software provided or otherwise made available to Customer by Dell may be used only during the term of the Services and solely as necessary for Customer to enjoy the benefit of the Services as stated in the applicable Service Agreements.

b. Restrictions. Customer may not copy, modify, or create a derivative work, collective work, or compilation of the Software, and may not reverse engineer, decompile or otherwise attempt to extract the code of the Software or any part thereof. Customer may not license, sell, assign, sublicense, or otherwise transfer or encumber the Software; may not use the Software in a managed-services arrangement; and may not use the Software in excess of the authorized number of licensed seats for concurrent users, sites, or other criteria specified in the applicable Service Documents. In addition, Customer may not access the Software to monitor its availability, performance, or functionality, or for any other benchmarking or competitive purpose.

Customer is further prohibited from (1) attempting to use or gain unauthorized access to Dell or to any third party's networks or equipment; (2) permitting other individuals or entities to use the Software or copy the Software or Services; (3) attempting to probe, scan, or test the vulnerability of Software or a system, account, or network of Dell or any of its customers or suppliers; (4) interfering or attempting to interfere with service to any user, host, or network; (5) engaging in fraudulent activity of any nature; (6) transmitting unsolicited bulk or commercial messages; (7) restricting, inhibiting, or otherwise interfering with the ability of any other person, regardless of intent, purpose, or knowledge, to use or enjoy the Software (except for tools with safety and security functions); or (8) restricting, inhibiting, interfering with, or otherwise disrupting or causing a performance degradation to any Dell (or Dell Service supplier) facilities used to deliver the Services.

c. Audit. You hereby grant Dell, or an agent designated by Dell, the right to perform an audit of your use of the Software during normal business hours; you agree to cooperate with Dell in such audit; and you agree to provide Dell with all records reasonably related to your use of the Software. The audit will be limited to verification of your compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

d. Open Source Software. A portion of the Software may contain or consist of open source software, which you may use under the terms and conditions of the specific license under which the open source software is distributed.

THIS OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE IS DISTRIBUTED IN THE HOPE THAT IT WILL BE USEFUL, BUT IS PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR ANY WARRANTY REGARDING TITLE OR AGAINST INFRINGEMENT. IN NO EVENT SHALL DELL, THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS, OR THE CONTRIBUTORS BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES; LOSS OF USE, DATA, OR PROFITS; OR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION)

HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OF THIS OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

8. Privacy.

For information about Dell's privacy practices, please read Dell's global and country-specific privacy policies at www.Dell.com/Privacy. These policies explain how Dell treats your personal information and protects your privacy.

9. Customer Data.

In Dell's performance of the Services or in connection with your use of the Software, it may be necessary for Dell to obtain, receive, or collect data or information, including system-specific data (collectively, the "Data"). In such cases, you grant Dell a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual, non-revocable license to use, compile, distribute, display, store, process, reproduce, or create derivative works of the Data solely to facilitate the performance of Services by Dell or your use of the Software. In addition, you grant Dell a license to aggregate the Data for use in an anonymous manner in support of Dell's marketing and sales activities. You also grant Dell the right to copy and maintain such material and content on Dell's servers (or the servers of its suppliers) during the term of this Agreement. You represent and warrant that you have obtained all rights, permissions, and consents necessary to use and transfer the Data within and outside of the country in which you are located in conjunction with Dell's performance of the Services or your use of the Software (including providing adequate disclosures and obtaining legally sufficient consent from your employees, agents, and contractors).

10. High-Risk Disclaimer.

The Products, Software, and Services are not fault-tolerant and are not designed or intended for use in hazardous environments requiring fail-safe performance, such as in the operation of nuclear facilities, aircraft navigation or communication systems, air traffic control, weapons systems, life-support machines, or any other application in which the failure of the Products, Software, or Services could lead directly to death, personal injury, or severe physical or property damage (collectively, "High-Risk Activities"). Dell expressly disclaims any express or implied warranty of fitness for High-Risk Activities.

11. Important Additional Information.

WHETHER DIRECT OR INDIRECT, NEITHER PARTY SHALL HAVE LIABILITY FOR THE FOLLOWING, (1) LOSS OF REVENUE, INCOME, PROFIT, OR SAVINGS; (2) LOST OR CORRUPTED DATA OR SOFTWARE, LOSS OF USE OF A SYSTEM OR NETWORK OR THE RECOVERY OF SUCH; (3) LOSS OF BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY; (4) BUSINESS INTERRUPTION OR DOWNTIME; OR (5) SERVICES, DELL PRODUCTS, OR THIRD-PARTY PRODUCTS NOT BEING AVAILABLE FOR USE.

DELL'S TOTAL LIABILITY FOR ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING ANY PRODUCTS, SOFTWARE, OR SERVICES PROVIDED HEREUNDER) IN ANY 12-MONTH PERIOD SHALL NOT EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT PAID BY CUSTOMER DURING THE PRIOR 12 MONTHS OF THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE SPECIFIC SOFTWARE OR SERVICE GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIM(S).

THE PARTIES AGREE THAT THESE LIMITATION OF LIABILITY ARE AGREED ALLOCATIONS OF RISK CONSTITUTING IN PART THE CONSIDERATION FOR DELL'S SALE OF SOFTWARE OR SERVICES TO CUSTOMER, AND SUCH LIMITATIONS WILL APPLY NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY AND EVEN IF A PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LIABILITIES.

- c. Confidentiality. In connection with this Agreement, each party may have access to or be exposed to information of the other party that is not generally known to the public, such as software, product plans, pricing, marketing and sales information, customer lists, "know-how," or trade secrets, which may be designated as confidential or which, under the circumstances surrounding disclosure, ought to be treated as confidential (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Confidential Information may not be shared with third parties unless such disclosure is to the receiving party's personnel, including employees, agents, and subcontractors, on a "need-to-know" basis in connection with this Agreement, so long as such personnel have agreed in writing to treat such Confidential Information under terms at least as restrictive as those herein. Each party agrees to take the necessary precautions to maintain the confidentiality of the other party's Confidential Information by using at least the same degree of care as such party employs with respect to its own Confidential Information of a similar nature, but in no case less than a commercially reasonable standard of care to maintain confidentiality. The foregoing shall not apply to information that (1) was known by one party prior to its receipt from the other or is or becomes public knowledge through no fault of the recipient; or (2) is rightfully received by the recipient from a third party without a duty of confidentiality. If a recipient is required by a court or government agency to disclose Confidential Information, the recipient shall, subject to any applicable lawful restrictions, provide advance notice to other party before making such a disclosure. The obligations with respect to Confidential Information shall continue for two years from the date of disclosure.
- d. Indemnification. Dell shall defend and indemnify you against any third-party claim or action that Products, Software, or Services (excluding Third-Party Products and open source software) prepared or produced by Dell and delivered pursuant to this Agreement infringe or misappropriate that third party's patent, copyright, trade secret, or other intellectual property rights enforceable in the country in which such Software or Services are sold to you by Dell ("Indemnified Claims"). In addition, if Dell receives prompt notice of a claim that, in Dell's reasonable opinion, is likely to result in an adverse ruling, then Dell shall at its option, (1) obtain a right for you to continue using such Products or Software or allow Dell to continue performing the Services; (2) modify such Software or Services to make them non-infringing; (3) replace such Software or Services with a non-infringing equivalent; or (4) refund any pre-paid fees for the allegedly infringing Services that have not been performed or provide a reasonable depreciated or pro rata refund for the allegedly infringing Software. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Dell shall have no obligation under this Section for any claim resulting or arising from (1) modifications of the Software or Services that were not performed by or on behalf of Dell;

(2) the combination, operation, or use of the Software or Services in connection with a third-party product, software, or service (the combination of which causes the claimed infringement); or (3) Dell's compliance with your written specifications or directions, including the incorporation of any software or other materials or processes provided by or requested by you. This Section states Customer's exclusive remedies for any third-party intellectual property claim or action, and nothing in this Agreement or elsewhere will obligate Dell to provide any greater indemnity to Customer.

You shall defend and indemnify Dell against any third-party claim or action arising out of (1) your failure to obtain any appropriate license, intellectual property rights, or other permissions, regulatory certifications, or approvals associated with technology provided by you, or associated with software or other components directed or requested by you to be installed or integrated as part of the Services; (2) your breach of Dell's proprietary rights as stated in this Agreement; or (3) any inaccurate representation regarding the existence of an export license or any allegation made against Dell due to your violation or alleged violation of applicable export laws, regulations, or orders.

Each party shall defend and indemnify the other party against any third-party claim or action for personal bodily injury, including death, to the extent directly caused by the indemnifying party's gross negligence or willful misconduct in the course of performing its obligations under this Agreement.

- e. Independent Contractor Relationship; Assignment; Subcontracting. The parties are independent contractors. Neither party will have any rights, power, or authority to act or create an obligation, express or implied, on behalf of another party except as specified in this Agreement. Dell has the right to assign, subcontract, or delegate in whole or in part this Agreement, or any rights, duties, obligations or liabilities under this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, provided that Dell shall remain responsible for the performance of Services under this Agreement. Otherwise, neither party may assign this Agreement without the permission of the other.
- f. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any failure to perform any of its obligations (except payment obligations) under this Agreement during any period in which such performance is delayed by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, such as fire, flood, war, embargo, strike, riot, or the intervention of any governmental authority (a "Force Majeure"). In such event, however, the delayed party must promptly provide the other party with written notice of the Force Majeure. The delayed party's time for performance will be excused for the duration of the Force Majeure, but if the Force Majeure event lasts longer than 30 days, then the other party may immediately terminate, in whole or in part, this Agreement or the applicable Service Agreement by giving written notice to the delayed party.
- g. Export Compliance. You acknowledge that the Software and Services provided under this Agreement, which may include technology and encryption, are subject to the customs and export control laws and regulations of the United States ("U.S."), may be rendered or performed either in the U.S., in countries outside the U.S., or outside of the borders of the country in which you or your system is located, and may also be subject to the customs and export laws and regulations of the country in which the Software or Services are rendered or received. You agree to abide by those laws and regulations. You further represent that any software provided by you and used as part of the Software or Services contains no encryption or, to the extent that it contains encryption, such software is approved for export without a license. If you cannot make the preceding representation, you agree to provide Dell with all of the information needed for Dell to obtain export licenses from the U.S. Government or any other applicable national government and to provide Dell with such additional assistance as may be necessary to obtain such licenses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you are solely responsible for obtaining any necessary licenses relating to the export of software. Dell also may require export certifications from you for software. Dell's acceptance of any order for Software or Services is contingent upon the issuance of any applicable export license required by the U.S. Government or any other applicable national government; Dell is not liable for delays or failure to deliver Software or Services resulting from your failure to obtain such license or to provide such certification. Each Party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the other harmless from any third-party claims, demands, or causes of action against the other due to the indemnifying party's violation or alleged violation of the applicable export laws, regulations or orders.
- h. Regulatory Requirements. Dell is not responsible for determining whether any Third-Party Product to be used in the Products, Software, or performance of the Services, satisfies the local regulatory requirements of the country to which such Products, Software, or Services are to be delivered, and Dell shall not be obligated to provide any Product or Software or perform any Services where the resulting Products, Software, or Services do not satisfy the local regulatory requirements.
- i. Entire Agreement; Severability. This Agreement is the entire agreement between you and Dell with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior oral and written understandings, communications, or agreements between you and Dell. No amendment to or modification of this Agreement, in whole or in part, will be valid or binding unless it is in writing and executed by authorized representatives of both parties. If any provision of this Agreement should be found to be void or unenforceable, such provision will be stricken or modified, but only to the extent necessary to comply with the law, and the remainder of this Agreement will remain in full force and will not be terminated.
- j. Updates. Dell reserves the right to update this Agreement at any time, effective upon posting an updated version at www.Dell.com/Terms; however, your rights and obligations shall be as provided in the version of this Agreement executed by you or available to you at the time of your purchase of Software or Services or, when applicable, renewal of Software or Services.
- k. U.S. Government Restricted Rights. The software and documentation provided with the Software and Services are "commercial items" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212 and 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, all U.S. Government end-users acquire the software and documentation with only those rights set forth herein. In particular they will ensure that they pay due regard to the interests of the Partner's customers and treat them fairly.

Any failure to comply with the provisions of this section 1.7 shall constitute a material breach of this Appendix that is not capable of remedy and shall entitle and may cause Dell to terminate the Appendix and the Channel Partner Agreement in accordance with section 15.2 of the Channel Partner Agreement.
