

WORK HAS CHANGED. CHANGE HOW YOU WORK.

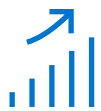

Dell Technologies powered by Intel vPro®.
What could be better?

Combined with Intel vPro®, Dell's OptiPlex desktops, Latitude laptops and Precision® workstations featuring 12th Gen Intel® Core™ processors are more powerful and more intuitive than ever before.

Productivity that keeps your business moving forward

Up to 27% faster overall application performance on laptops.¹

Up to 21% faster mainstream application performance on desktops.²

Intelligent

Dell Optimizer, powered by Intel vPro with 12th Generation Intel Core processors, is the only business, AI-based optimization software that learns how you work to improve battery life, app performance, and audio settings. And ExpressSign-In with Dell's PC proximity sensor enabled by Intel® Visual or Context Sensing Technology detects user presence to instantly wake and log in using the IR camera and Windows Hello.

Secure

Dell and Intel apply Zero Trust principles to their commercial PCs to help keep businesses and employees secure. Dell SafeBIOS and Intel® Hardware Shield, available exclusively on Intel vPro, offers sophisticated threat protection and built-in multilayer protection to safeguard users against advanced threats. The Intel vPro platform makes it easy for IT to keep mission-critical manageability resources running.

Adaptive

Inside and out, Dell OptiPlex, Latitude and Precision systems were designed to adapt to real-world performance. Dell Optimizer's ExpressResponse feature uses built-in AI and Intel® Adaptix™ Technology to learn which apps to prioritize, boost their launch times, improve performance, and make switching between them easy for superior multitasking.

BETTER OFFICE PRODUCTIVITY DURING CONFERENCE CALLS.

Optimized Connectivity

Whether working from home, the office, or both, you'll always be connected to fast, reliable Wi-Fi. Dell ExpressConnect joins the best network available, so you have fewer disruptions throughout the workday. And it prioritizes traffic for conference calls for a better video calling experience.
